What is BIOGEOMETRY?

BioGeometry is a fascinating holistic discipline. It is a science of energy that enables us to understand life's phenomena in terms of the subtle energy interactions they are, and more importantly, use this awareness with certain skills to create balance and harmony in all aspects of our life. The methods are based on Nature's own language of shape; they are simple to understand and implement - yet highly potent in the results they achieve.

The aim in BioGeometry is to generate the same beneficial energy qualities and frequencies found in the core of Nature's forming principle from which everything arises, and use these qualities to restore balance at all levels from the physical to the spiritual.

BioGeometry has far-reaching applications in everyday life ranging from health, personal growth and spirituality, to architecture and design, agriculture, gardening and many other fields.

In today's increasingly stressful environments, we can all benefit from learning to harmonize our living and working spaces, our food and ourselves, and neutralize detrimental factors such as electromagnetic radiation and geopathic stress. BioGeometry's scientifically proven solutions can have significant positive impact on your well-being and that of your loved ones, on all levels.

WHAT ARE THE ORIGINS OF BIOGEOMETRY?

BioGeometry was founded in 1974 by Dr. Ibrahim Karim of Cairo, architect, philosopher and author. The fruit of decades of research, BioGeometry brings together ancient wisdom from the once secret temple sciences of Egypt, with the 20th century radiesthesia research on shape-caused waves, made into a practical discipline through Dr. Karim's own groundbreaking research, modern scientific insight and a holistic worldview. Dr. Karim has created a practical discipline that unites science and spirituality, and offers huge benefits to the individual and to humankind.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

We are all dynamic living energy systems existing in the sea of vibrations that is our world. On invisible levels, our vital energies are in constant interaction with each other and with our environment, exchanging energy effects on all levels. These exchanges are crucial as they affect our health, quality of life, state of mind and level of consciousness. BioGeometry uses the subtle energy effects of geometric form, colour, angle, etc to introduce natural balance on all levels of being. The result is a powerful, interactive way of creating harmony in living things and spaces.

THE RESEARCH?

BioGeometry's effectiveness has been demonstrated in various research and projects in different fields including (amongst many others):

- Successfully harmonising detrimental effects of electromagnetic radiation in Switzerland, commissioned by Swiss local government
- In different studies at Cairo universities, the use of Biosignature forms gave startling results in treatment of Hepatitis C and restoring serotonin levels against stress, when compared to pharmaceutical solutions.
- Agricultural and animal husbandry research which showed maximum results without pesticide and chemicals
- Producing results in the performance of children with ADHD through BioGeometrical balancing of their classrooms
- Architectural projects in USA, Canada and the Middle East
- Dr Masaru Emoto of Japan demonstrated BioGeometry's harmonizing effect on water crystals

The best proof you will have will be your own results when you begin to apply BioGeometry in your life!

WHO IS THIS TRAINING FOR?

Anybody. The training appeals to architects, designers, landscapers, holistic practitioners, healers, metaphysical students, artists, Feng Shui consultants, farmers... but basically anybody interested in bringing harmony into their life, or understanding and affecting the invisible levels for their well-being and those around them.

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS?

The first benefit BioGeometry gives is the expanded holistic worldview. Its concepts shed new light on life in terms of being complex interactions of energy and qualities, both at the tangible levels as well as the hidden subtle energy levels. The practical applications are numerous.

- You can balance the energies in your home or office, for your benefit and those around you
- Minimize the effects of electromagnetic radiation, geopathic stress and various negative factors which assail us
- Help promote health and well-being with BioSignature patterns which assist the body's systems.
- Create favourable conditions for plants, crops or animals
- Discern if something is suitable for you (or others) or not
- Learn to design anything, be it a house or a logo, that emanates the harmonizing qualities of BG3.

HOW IS THE ONLINE COURSE STRUCTURED

16 Lessons in English (the entire Foundation Training normally taught over 6 live days). You will learn through four media:

1. The main Lesson is a recorded PowerPoint presentation with the instructor's detailed voice commentary. Slides are visual, comprehensive and clear.

2. Many lessons also have a Video Lesson in which the Instructor teaches the technique and demonstrates its actual use in the home.

3. Eight Live Online Sessions on scheduled dates (pg 7), you log in on Zoom and join the class. Sessions will review the previous Lesson, answer questions and assess each person's progress with the techniques.

4. Each Lesson has the PowerPoint in PDF form, plus the necessary charts, Biosignatures, Emitters etc you need to print.

The PDFs download to your hard-disk for you to keep, while the Lessons and Videos can be viewed as often as you need for three months after the end of the course.

WHAT DO I NEED TO DO THE ONLINE TRAINING COURSE?

The coffee is optional, but here's what you definitely need...

HARDWARE: A computer or tablet with a functional internet connection, equipped with camera and microphone for the Live Sessions, and a printer to print out the charts from PDF.

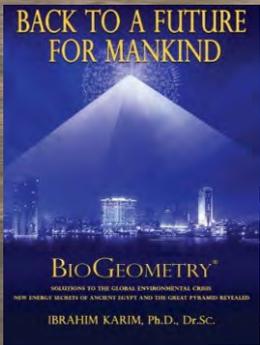

SOFTWARE: PowerPoints and Videos are viewed in the usual way you watch videos on your device, apart from YouTube. View PDFs the same way you are viewing this brochure. Zoom is easily downloaded, we will supply instructions on how to connect and use it, which is easy.

BOOKS: Dr. Karim's books Back To A Future for Mankind and BioGeometry Signatures are essential reading to every BioGeometry student to support your course. They are available from Amazon.

THE ESSENTIAL TOOLS: You will need the following BioGeometry tools for this training, as well as to use afterwards in your everyday life to do the techniques:

1. BG16 Pendulum-Emitter. Besides detecting the BG3 harmonising qualities this tool also emits them, making it useful for healing, harmonising food, opening chakras, etc
2. IKUP Pendulum. Used to measure personal wavelength and affinity, useful for all kinds of energy work, esoteric research, etc as it connects to all the planes of nature.
3. Dial Pendulums. These two pendulums enable us to measure the 12 energy bands in both horizontal (beneficial) and vertical (detrimental) waveforms and Earth energy grids.
4. You also need the BioGeometry Home Kit which consists of a BG Cube which can help harmonise an entire building, Strips for balancing the electricity and water supply, adhesive L forms for balancing windows, mirrors and appliances; and a BG3 charging plate. Great to have in the home, as you will see

All items will be bought by the student by mail order before the course. The pendulums are needed immediately for the training, while the Home Kit needed later in the training.

ONLINE BIOGEOMETRY FOUNDATION TRAINING DATES SCHEDULE

Table below shows dates of the Live Online Sessions in which we connect together on Zoom for 1.5 to 2 hours of teaching, demonstration, Q & A and exercises. Before each Live Session, you will have received access to the recorded Power-Point lessons and tutorials during the days in between, giving you time to study each lesson. The Live Sessions will then also cover the salient points of each lesson, demonstrate techniques and also assess your performance of that technique. There is usually allowance of at least a day or more or more to study Lessons.

Sunday, March 7	Intro, Meet & Greet
Monday, March 8	Live Session 1
Wednesday, March 10	Live Session 2
Saturday, March 13	Live Session 3
Monday, March 15	Live Session 4
Wednesday, March 17	Live Session 5
Saturday, March 20	Live Session 6
Monday, March 22	Live Session 7
Wednesday, March 24	Live Session 8
Saturday, March 27	Live Session 9

The Online Live Sessions will start at 1700 GMT / 1500 EDT / 1000 CDT (The aim is to adhere to the times as much as possible, but times are subject to amendment).

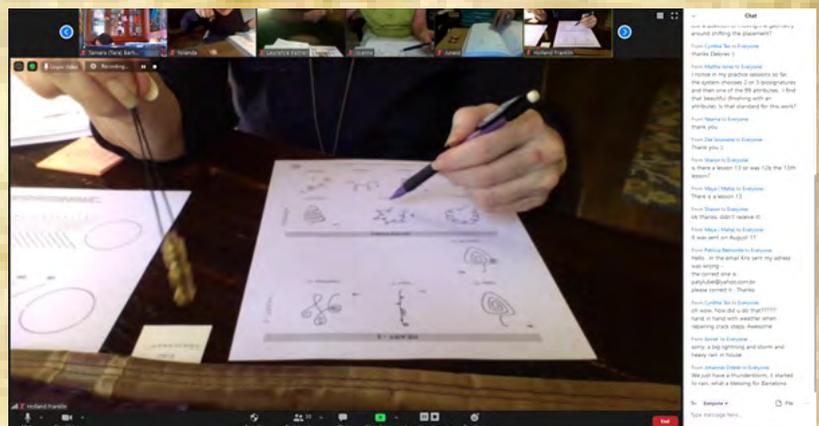

Each session duration will vary according to the content of the Lessons, the objective that need to be addressed and the number of questions to be answered.

Questions are obviously important in any training, and there will be ample opportunity for you to ask questions and have them answered during this training. Ideally these are sent by email in advance, and Kris will then answer them in a subsequent Live Session as in that way the entire group benefits from the answer. Naturally one can also ask questions that arise spontaneously during the Live Sessions.

Still frames from an Online BioGeometry Training. Zoom offers options of seeing the whole group, or having a larger image of the speaker. With a click, format can be selected according to what is happening during the session. The chat column on the right of the screen helps with posting of links and questions to the Instructor during the session (which can also be asked in voice, live).

The picture on the right shows how during a practical session, the Instructor can easily supervise the student's technique. Even those who are unaccustomed to using online platforms will find it easy as full illustrated instructions are provided before the start of the course, and this will also be addressed during the first intro session.

F.A.Q.

I have no experience of these kind of subjects, will I manage to understand BioGeometry?

Absolutely. The geometry in the name refers to the study of form, not any complex geometry learnt in school. The subject is easily understood by anyone in fact our courses are attended by people from all walks of life. The techniques are also easily mastered but as with all techniques, practise is necessary.

Does one need to be computer savvy to do an online course?

If you can click on a link to watch a video, and if you have ever used Skype or video chat , you are already there. The program we use for the online sessions is Zoom, and it is easy to use, and full instructions will be provided.

Is there a career track I can follow in BioGeometry?

Yes! As the name implies, Foundation Training gives you an understanding of the concepts and a functional mastery of its core methods. The Advanced Training will make you eligible to attend the live Special Topics events organised from time to time by the founder. But more importantly, you will be able to join the specialised training to become a BioGeometry Home Environmental Balancing Practitioner licensed by the BioGeometry organisation to promote yourself as a working Practitioner offering paid services to balance people's homes, a service whose need is only increasing with time.

Will all the material remain permanently available when the training is over?

A challenge of any online training is to ensure that students leave the course with as good a knowledge of the material as live course participants do. In a live training, one learns the material in the correct sequence and within the time frame of the duration of the course. To replicate that same kind of focus, we are posting the Lessons online in sequence, and they will be available for viewing any number of times for three months after the end of the training. You will however have the PDF of each slide lesson to keep permanently. These measures are to help ensure our students leave the course with a good level of understanding and competence in BioGeometry.

Can the training be shared with others?

No. By registering for the training, the student formally undertakes not to share with anyone else the passwords received to access the material, or the material itself. Any indication on the system that others have been granted access to a student's Lessons will regretfully result in revoking that student's access to the course material.

Do I need to have my camera on during Live Sessions?

Yes, for two important reasons. Firstly to have a sense of a class group, as learning is always helped by friendly interaction. But more importantly, your camera can enable the instructor to assess your progress with the pendulums techniques. So be aware how to adjust the angle of your camera when requested so your hands using the pendulum will be in clear view.

I already own pendulums and am skilled in using them, do I still need to buy the BioGeometry ones?

Yes, because in BioGeometry we do not use the classic question & yes/no answer, but the Vibrational Radiesthesia method developed by the old French school. It is extremely important that students work solely with this method for BioGeometry techniques as the testing relies not on mental questioning but on actual vibrational resonance with the emissions of the object/ person/space being tested, which is more objective. All the BioGeometry pendulums are calibrated to geometrically resonate with the energy qualities they are detecting, and are hence compulsory for the training.

Does the training involve exams?

Not during the course but within two weeks after the training, you will need to submit five assignments chosen from a list. If you followed the training, you will have no difficulty with these, but in case you do there will be allowance, within obvious limits, for you to amend or re-submit accordingly so as to be successful in the training and receive your certificate.

I am undecided between taking an online training or attending a live one. What's the difference?

The same material is covered but each format naturally has its unique qualities. Live training gives an intense 6-day immersion in the subject with the instructor and the class. The online is more focused on personal study at home in your own home, and contact with the instructor is in the live sessions and email, it involves no travel and can be slotted into one's family or work life.

How can I ask questions during the training?

One scope of the Live Zoom Sessions is for the Instructor to answer questions. You can email technical questions in advance so that they will be answered during the session, so all the class benefits from the answer. If a question needs to be answered personally, it will be done by email. After the training, you can still email questions to the instructor.

When will I need to have the compulsory BioGeometry tools?

The three pendulum sets (BG16, IKUP and Vertical & Horizontal set) you will need immediately, so please ensure you register in good time to receive those by the time the training starts. The Home Kit will be needed to practise Lesson 13 and one of the assignments later in the training.

What if I cannot make it to a Live Session

In a live training one either makes it to a lesson or misses it, and the same applies with Live Online Sessions. Although no new material will be given in the Sessions that is not covered in the recorded Lessons, nonetheless they are crucial for consolidating what one studied in the previous lesson as well as answering questions.

Can I speak about BioGeometry to others?

Yes of course. Just use your discretion as to what to say in order to avoid others misunderstanding what BioGeometry is.
